

CREOLE TOWNHOUSE

A two to four-story structure with asymmetrical arrangement of arched openings on façade wall. Iron balcony at second and sometimes third levels. Steeply pitched side-gabled roof often with multiple roof dormers. Brick or stuccoed exterior.